ABOUT

Product Designer with 8+ years of experience building digital products for EdTech, AI, fintech, and social impact initiatives.

Psychology background brings a behavioral lens to every design decision — from product strategy and accessibility to information architecture and scalable interface systems.

Experienced in AI-powered educational products, gamified learning experiences, and design systems for multi-product environments, with a focus on consistency, scalability, and user-centricity.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

FTD Educação · Product Designer

Mar 2025 — Present · Remote, Brazil

Led the design of a high school chemistry educational platform, working full-cycle — from design system foundations to high-fidelity prototype delivery. Responsible for establishing the visual language, token architecture, and accessibility standards, incorporating technical tools and low code into the process.

- ▶ Architecture and maintenance of a Figma design system with primitive and semantic variables supporting light and dark mode, including a palette with 168+ tokens across 11 color families and WCAG AA/AAA contrast validation documented per token.
- ▶ Typography documentation with specimens directly bound to font variables, eliminating desynchronization between documentation and implementation.
- ▶ Design and documentation of complex components with semantic color hierarchy and a scalable element classification system.
- ▶ Iterative delivery of high-fidelity prototypes covering Home, Element Page, and Articles, with sprint-versioned changelogs.
- ▶ Use of Figma MCP for task automation via Plugin API — bulk corrections, variable binding, and token updates at scale.
- ▶ Interface development with Mobirise and low code tools, reducing the gap between design and delivery.

Zup Innovation · Product Designer

Jun 2024 — Nov 2025 · Remote · São Paulo, Brazil

Product Designer focused on 4 AI-powered educational products with accessibility and scalable Design Systems.

- ▶ Led the creation of the Atlas Design System, building reusable foundations, tokens, and scalable interface standards for educational products.
- ▶ Developed gamified journeys for Coda Mundo, driving digital learning experiences for 3,000+ students.
- ▶ Contributed to conversational UX strategy and accessible design for IA no Corre, an AI literacy initiative for underserved communities.
- ▶ Conducted research, usability testing, and iterative prototyping with at-risk youth.
- ▶ Ongoing collaboration with PMs, developers, and educators, strengthening alignment and delivery consistency.

Key contributions

- ▶ 40% increase in design team delivery speed through the Atlas Design System.
- ▶ Scalable foundations structured for AI-driven educational products.
- ▶ Gamified experiences impacting 3,000+ students.
- ▶ Improved documentation workflows, reducing rework across teams.
- ▶ Contributed to the visual identity and voice evolution of IA no Corre.
